

Help for those who need it

Extended Hugs

is committed to supporting those who are unfairly denied the firm foundation needed for a successful life.

EXTENDED
HUGS

At Extended Hugs, we have three main initiatives:

Grant awards to families struggling with terminal illness.

These need-based awards help to cover the crippling expenses associated with supporting a loved one with a terminal illness.

Resource provisions for children of low-income families

Practical gifts ranging from school lunch debt coverage to tennis shoes are designed to ease stresses of daily life for low-income kids, helping them toward the carefree childhood that so many others enjoy.

Scholarship awards for financially disadvantaged students.

Need and merit-based awards ensure that aspiring students' ambitions are no longer stifled by financial concerns.
